- * Whilst parents with babies and very young children are welcome at the dress rehearsal, we kindly request that they are taken out of the school hall if they become unsettled in consideration of the performers / other members of the audience. Thank you in advance for your co-operation.
-  Tickets will not be issued – children's names will be crossed off at the door as guests arrive.

We are allocating 2 seats per family across the main performances. This means you can request either:

- 2 tickets for the 9:30am performance only
OR
- 2 tickets for the 2:00pm performance only
OR
- 1 ticket for the 9:30am performance and 1 ticket for the 2:00pm performance
OR
- 1 ticket for the 9:30am performance ONLY
OR
- 1 ticket for the 2:00pm performance ONLY

We respectfully ask that parents fill in Google form <https://goo.gl/forms/8AEx3FhztX4s9wCH3> stating when they would like their 2 (maximum) tickets allocated, as this will help us ensure seating, as well as safety, arrangements are robust. Please ensure the form is completed by Monday 3rd December.

We respectfully ask that friends and family do not make recordings of the performance on their own devices as handheld devices block the view for the family members sitting behind. There will be an opportunity to take photographs at the end of the main performance but we wish to remind you that these are for personal use only and are not to be shared on social media. Thank you for your cooperation in this.

We look forward to welcoming you on 11th / 12th December and very much hope you enjoy this year's performance.

Yours sincerely,

Mrs. E. Walton
