

Bonjour les enfants et parents des premières classes !

lundi 15 juin 2020

Our seasonal song is Quand c'est l'été. Please sing along and dance to it at every opportunity and certainly before you start French work to put you in the mood.

Monday 15th June 2020

Let's revise our pure vowels by singing the song aeiou coloré that is attached. Could you explain to your parents why we colour vowels in French? It's to make sure that we pronounce them moving our lips to have a clear pronunciation and the colour rhymes with the sound the letter makes as in the enclosed activity sheet. Can you colour code the pure vowels of the lyrics in the enclosed activity sheet?

Mardi 16 juin 2020 - Tuesday 16th June 2020

Our new topic song is: Quel temps fait-il aujourd'hui ? to listen to and start singing along to.

Let's just look at the first verse. The lyrics are the following:

Quel temps fait-il aujourd'hui ?	What is the weather like today?
Est-ce qu'il fait beau aujourd'hui ?	Is the weather nice today ?
Non, il pleut aujourd'hui.	No, it's raining today.
Il y a un orage et beaucoup de pluie.	There is a storm and a lot of rain.
Il ne fait pas beau aujourd'hui.	The weather isn't' nice today
Sauf pour les canards	Apart for ducks

As an activity, you can spot and colour-code the pure vowels in this song too.

If you are drawing and writing a card for your father or any other male member of your family, you can write: J'aime Papa or follow J'aime with the person's name to say "I love Daddy" or your special person. On this board, there are lots of father's day songs and stories: Bonne fête des pères !

You can always enjoy all the songs and stories we have done in Yr1 St Jérôme Pinterest Board.
