

French Intercultural Understanding

Phase Progression Reception to Yr6

Reception	I can recognise the French flags and state its colours.
	I recognise the Eiffel Tower and know that it is in France, in Paris.
	I am aware of French food traditions like la galette/les crêpes
	I have been introduced to commemorations using poppies and cornflowers for Armistice.
	I have been introduced to the tradition of the 1st May muguet tradition.
	I join into the French end of year celebration concert for Bastille Day.
	I can recognise the French flags and state its colours.
Phase 1	I can recognise some Paris landmarks.
	I know that Bretagne and Provence are French regions.
	I know about French food traditions like la galette/les crêpes.
	I am aware of the commemorations using poppies and cornflowers for Armistice.
	I am aware of the 1st May muguet tradition.
	I join into the French end of year celebration concert for Bastille Day.
	I can recognise some Paris landmarks.
Phase 2	I know that Paris is the capital city of France and name two regions.
	I can name the 4 countries of the UK in French and their capital cities.
	I know about French food traditions like “la galette/les crêpes”.
	I am aware of the commemorations using poppies and cornflowers for Armistice and “muguet” for the first of May.
	I am aware of the French tradition of the tooth mouse.
Phase 3	I know that French is spoken all around the world and celebrate the day of Francophonie.
	I can name the 4 countries of the UK in French and their capital cities.
	I know about French food traditions like la bûche/la galette/les crêpes.
	I am aware of the the commemorations using poppies and cornflowers for Armistice and muguet for the first of May.
	I am aware of the French Easter traditions, especially the bells.

	I can celebrate Mothers Day and Fathers Day and know that they can be at different dates than in the UK.
	I join into the French end of year celebration concert for Bastille Day by singing songs and reciting poems.
Phase 4	I know that French is spoken all around the world and celebrate the day of Francophonie.
	I can name French speaking countries around the world and say which continent they are on.
	I know about French food traditions like la bûche/la galette/les crêpes.
	I am aware of the the commemorations using poppies and cornflowers for Armistice and muguet for the first of May
	I am aware of the French Easter traditions, especially the bells.
	I can celebrate Mothers Day and Fathers Day and know that they can be at different dates than in the UK.
	I join into the French end of year celebration concert for Bastille Day by singing songs and reciting poems.
	I know that French is spoken all around the world and celebrate the day of Francophonie.
	I can name French speaking countries around the world and say which continent they are on.
Phase 5	I know that French is spoken all around the world and celebrate the day of Francophonie.
	I can name French speaking countries around the world and say which continents they are on and know the rule about the preposition in front of feminine and masculine countries.
	I know about French food traditions like la bûche/la galette/les crêpes
	I know about the commemorations using poppies and cornflowers for Armistice and muguet for the first of May and discuss differences.
	I know about French Christmas and Easter traditions, especially the bells.
	I celebrate Mothers Day and Fathers Day and know that they can be on different dates than in the UK.
	I support younger learners in the French end of year celebration concert for Bastille Day by singing songs and reciting poems.
	I know that French is spoken all around the world and celebrate the day of Francophonie.
	I can name French speaking countries around the world and say which continents they are on and know the rule about the preposition in front of feminine and masculine countries.
Phase 6	I know about French food traditions like la bûche/la galette/les crêpes
	I know that French is spoken all around the world and celebrate the day of Francophonie.

	I can name French speaking countries around the world and say which continents they are on and know the rule about the preposition in front of feminine and masculine countries.
	I know about French food traditions like la bûche/la galette/les crêpes.
	I know about the commemorations using poppies and cornflowers for Armistice and muguet for the first of May and discuss differences.
	I know about French Christmas and Easter traditions, especially the bells.
	I celebrate Mothers Day and Fathers Day and know that they can be on different dates than in the UK.
	I support younger learners in the French end of year celebration concert for Bastille Day by singing songs and reciting poems.
	I know that French is spoken all around the world and celebrate the day of Francophonie.
	I have read a variety of authentic French children's literature and I have read "le Petit Prince" by Antoine de St Exupéry.